

Bodybuilding In South Pacific Games

Pictured at the Meridian Hotel, the very same hotel that French President, Nicolas Sarkozy is staying is Christian Pothier of Tahiti and Philip Hope of New Zealand and Cook Islands following an important meeting to discuss the World Bodybuilding and Physique Sports (WBPF) Continental Championships calendar for the next five years.

Christian Pothier is an Executive Vice President of the South Pacific Bodybuilding Federation (SPBBF) and is also the President of the Bodybuilding Federation in Tahiti/French Polynesia.

Christian is attending the South-Pacific Games as the International Federation (IF) delegate for Power lifting and as senior Judge for Bodybuilding (WBPF). He brought a full team of bodybuilders to contest the 2011 Pacific Games in New Caledonia.

Philip Hope is President of the South Pacific Bodybuilding Federation (SPBBF) and World Bodybuilding and Physique Sports Federation (WBPF) Vice President for Oceania. Philip is attending the Games as the IF delegate for Bodybuilding (WBPF), a role he has ably fulfilled in support of major Games events since 2001.

